

GLOBE STAR

“Mentoring a Spirit of Gentleness”

Teaching Log

Teaching Topic: QoML Plan

Teaching Date:

Target Audience: Annual Teaching (when Plan is revised)

Length of Teaching:

Note: Globe Star’s behavioral support plan is called the “Quality of Mentoring Life (QoML) Plan”.

Teaching Objective(s):

To teach crewmembers:

- How to implement the QoML Plan for: _____
- How to document on the Area of Difficulty Sheet any targeted behaviors as per 460 IAC 6-18-2.
- The meaning of Valuing, Teaching, Protecting, and Reciprocating as per the QoML Plan.
- How to document Valuing, Teaching, Protecting, and Reciprocating for the Individual.
- How to use the visual daytimer in order to set up the Individual’s daily activities.

To answer questions: Regarding the QoML Plan.

My signature below indicates that I:

- Have received specific training as provided in the plan in the techniques and procedures required for implementing the QoML Plan.
- Understand how to use the techniques and procedures required to implement the QoML Plan.

Attendee Name	Attendee Signature	Your Role to Facilitate a Spirit of Gentleness

Please use one copy of this form for each new crewmember. A copy of this completed form goes into the Training Log Book (see PF-050) and into this crewmember’s file in the Central Filing System.

Comments/Concerns:

Navigator Name

Signature

Date